NOMINATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

1. Purpose

The primary purpose of the nomination committee (Committee) is to support and advise the Board in:

(a) maintaining a Board that has an appropriate mix of skills, knowledge of the Company and the industry in which it operates and experience to be an effective decision-making body; and

(b) ensuring that the Board is comprised of Directors who contribute to the successful management of the Company and discharge their duties having regard to the law and the highest standards of corporate governance.

2. Role

The role of the Committee is to assist the Board in monitoring and reviewing any matters of significance affecting the composition of the Board and the team of executives as appointed by the Company, being the executive team. This Charter defines the Committee's function, composition, mode of operation, authority and responsibilities.

3. Composition

The Board will strive to adhere to the following composition requirements for the Committee where at all possible. However, the Board acknowledges that the composition of the Board may not allow adherence to the following composition requirements from time to time.

(a) The Committee shall comprise at least three Directors, the majority whom are independent Directors.

(b) The Committee will be chaired by an independent Director who will be appointed by the Board.

(c) The Board may appoint additional non-executive Directors to the Committee or remove and replace members of the Committee by resolution.

4. Duties and Responsibilities of the Committee

(a) Periodically review and consider the structure and balance of the Board and make recommendations regarding appointments, retirements and terms of office of Directors.

(b) Make recommendations to the Board on the appropriate size and composition of the Board.

(c) Identify and recommend to the Board candidates for the Board after considering the necessary and desirable competencies of new Board members to ensure the appropriate mix of skills and experience and after an assessment of how the candidates can contribute to the strategic direction of the Company. Consideration is also to be given to the balance of independent Directors on the Board.

(d) Undertake appropriate checks before appointing a Director or senior executive or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a Director, including checks in respect of character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history (as appropriate).

(e) Ensure that Directors or senior executives who are provisionally appointed give an unequivocal undertaking to resign should the Company receive an outstanding check that it considers unsatisfactory.

(f) Ensure that each Director and senior executive is personally a party to a written agreement with the Company which sets out the terms of that Director's or senior executive's appointment. For these purposes, a senior executive is a member of key management personnel (as defined in the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)), other than a Director. Where the Company engages a bona fide professional services firm to provide a chief financial officer, Company Secretary or other senior executive on an outsourced basis, the agreement may be between the entity and the professional services firm.

(g) Prepare, maintain and regularly review a Board skills matrix setting out the measurable mix of skills and diversity that the Board currently has (or is looking to achieve) to ensure the Board has the skills to discharge its obligations effectively and to add value and to ensure the Board has the ability to deal with new and emerging business and governance issues. The Company must disclose this matrix in, or in conjunction with, its Annual Report.

(h) Approve and review induction and continuing professional development programs and procedures for Directors to ensure that they can effectively discharge their responsibilities.

(i) Assess and consider the time required to be committed by a non-executive Director to properly fulfil their duty to the Company and advise the Board.

(j) Consider and recommend to the Board candidates for election or re-election to the Board at each annual shareholders' meeting.

(k) Review directorships in other public companies held by or offered to Directors and senior executives of the Company.

(l) Review succession plans for the Board with a view to maintaining an appropriate balance of skills and experience on the Board.

(m) Arrange an annual performance evaluation of the Board, its Committee, individual Directors and senior executives as appropriate. Such review will include a consideration of the currency of each Director's knowledge and skills and whether Director's performance has been impacted by any other commitments.

5. Meetings

(a) The Committee will meet at least once a year and additionally as circumstances may require.

(b) Meetings are called by the secretary as directed by the Board or at the request of the chair of the Committee.

(c) Where deemed appropriate by the chair of the Committee, meetings and subsequent approvals may be held or concluded by way of a circular written resolution or conference call.

(d) A quorum shall comprise any two members of the Committee. In the absence of the chair of the Committee or appointed delegate, the members shall elect one of their number as chair of the Committee.

(e) Decisions will be based on a majority of votes with the chair of the Committee having a casting vote.

(f) The Committee may invite executive management team members or other individuals, including external third parties to attend meetings of the Committee, as they consider appropriate.

6. Secretary

(a) The Company Secretary or their nominee shall be the secretary of the Committee and shall attend meetings of the Committee as required.

(b) The secretary will be responsible for preparing agendas, keeping the minutes of meetings of the Committee and circulating them to Committee members and to the other members of the Board.

(c) The secretary shall distribute supporting papers for each meeting of the Committee as far in advance as possible.

7. Reliance on Information or Professional or Expert Advice

Each member of the Committee is entitled to rely on information, or professional or expert advice, to the extent permitted by law, given or prepared by:

(a) an employee of the Company and its subsidiaries (if any) (Group) whom the member believes on reasonable grounds to be reliable and competent in relation to the matters concerned;

(b) a professional adviser or expert in relation to matters that the member believes on reasonable grounds to be within the person's professional or expert competence; or

(c) another Director or officer of the Group in relation to matters within the Director's or officer's authority.

8. Access to Advice

(a) Members of the Committee have rights of access to the books and records of the Company to enable them to discharge their duties as Committee members, except where the Board determines that such access would be adverse to the Company's interests.

(b) The Committee may consult independent experts to assist it in carrying out its duties and responsibilities. Any costs incurred as a result of the Committee consulting an independent expert will be borne by the Company.

9. Reporting

(a) The Committee must report to the Board formally at the next Board meeting following from the last Committee meeting on matters relevant to the Committee's role and responsibilities.

(b) The Committee must brief the Board promptly on all urgent and significant matters.

(c) The Company must disclose the policies and practices regarding the nomination of non-executive Directors, executive Directors and other senior executives in, or in conjunction with, the Company's annual report and as otherwise required by law.

10. Monitoring and review

The Board will conduct an annual review of the membership of the Committee to ensure that the Committee has carried out its functions in an effective manner and will review and update this Charter as required or as a result of new laws or regulations.
